

2016 Tokyo International Packaging Exhibition

The 2016 Tokyo International Packaging Exhibition (Tokyo Pack 2016) will be held from October 4 this year at the Tokyo Big Sight exhibition center. The exhibition, which takes place every second year and is one of the world's leading general packaging trade fairs, focuses on packaging materials, containers, and packaging machinery, covering all aspects from procurement, production, shipping and distribution to sales, consumption, disposal and recycling.

Below is an outline of this year's event, whose theme is The Heart of Advanced Packaging Solutions in Asia. Exhibitors will include numerous leading Japanese manufacturers in corrugated packaging and other fields.
